

Blackheath High School

Blackheath, SE3

Rooff successfully secured the Blackheath High School project involving new build construction of a new Art/Music wing to replace the current building and a new three storey Main Entrance Building and exhibition space between existing blocks.

We will also be constructing a new learning centre which will be sunk into a new lower ground floor under the current site, as well as new changing rooms and associated facilities.

Client: Girls Day School Trust

Architect: Ellis Williams Architects

Quantity Surveying: Todd & Ledson LLP

Contract value: £10M

Form of Contract: JCT With Quants and CDP